WHEREVER HE MAY BE THIS CHRISTMAS!

He'll read and re-read a dozen times every letter from home... every greeting card. He'll unwrap and fondle every gift sent him from mother, father, sister, sweetheart, friends.

For these things speak of home. And though everyone tries to make Christmas as gay as possible where he is; as bright as the service club decorations may be; as strong as the friendships he may have made with those now near to him... yet so far from home, all his thoughts will be with you AT HOME... this Christmas!

And though your thoughts are of him... there's a difference. You still are in the cheerful atmosphere of your household. You still are surrounded by loved ones. You can only imagine his life "out there"—but he's living it... and the reality of that life contrasts starkly with the warmer reality of his memories of "home."

That's why we must all be ceasing in our efforts to end this war soon and bring him to the home he's dreaming of this Christmas. That's why we must buy more War Bonds than we even think we can... That's why, above all, we must give the present with a future... this Christmas!

Wanted to Rent 82 PLEASE READ THIS! An executive has made a permanent connection with a long established Torrance firm (not a war industry) and is moving to this city with his family and two children, arriving from the middle west on Jan. 4th or 5th. The character of this move is a family one well known and can be assured to anyone who possibly has a home that will be available for rental (furnished if possible) on or about the first week in January. Rental bracket around $50 per month. Will gladly lease something desirable. It is rather important for them to have a home upon arrival. Local arrangements have been made to pay the rent here in advance. For additional information please call Mr. Grover Whyte, publisher of the Torrance Herald at Torrance 44.
